

John P. Mahony Sr.

July 6, 1929 - July 31, 2016

John “Jack” Mahony

Jack Mahony passed away in the morning of July 31st from complications from lung cancer at the age of 87. He was married to Marie Jeanette Mahony (deceased, nee Rudan) for 65 years. He was a devoted husband and father and is survived by his children, Nancy Mahony, John Mahony and spouse, Lisa Mahony and Cathy Mahony Steuber and spouse, Jim Steuber. He is also survived by 6 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

He attended North Catholic High School in Philadelphia and served in the Army and Air Force during the Korean War. He was known for his easy sociable manner and sense of humor. He was a lifelong Phillies fan and a devotee of swing music, particularly in the big band era and especially the music of Frank Sinatra.

He made his career in the engineering profession as a draftsman and piping designer for such companies as New York Shipbuilding, DuPont, United Engineers and Stone & Webster Eng. Corp.

He raised his family in Burlington County, NJ and retired to Florida, where he and his wife Marie enjoyed many years together.

He was a devoted husband and with his wife made a comedy team that delighted family and friends for years. He was particularly fond of all of his grandchildren, who lit up whenever he was around.

Since his wife’s passing in May of 2015 he looked forward to seeing her again in heaven. His family and friends are comforted by the fact that Jack and his wife are reunited again — this time in an eternal bliss with no sorrow and no tears.

A Christian Mass of Resurrection will be celebrated on Saturday, August 13, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. at Sacred Heart Church in Riverton, New Jersey.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Catholic Charities.
