

Anita Katherine Blauvelt

March 3, 1930 - May 26, 2018

Anita Katherine Blauvelt of Ridgewood, N.J. peacefully passed away on May 26, 2018 surrounded by her family. She was the beloved daughter of the late Abram and Katherine (DeKorte) van Hassel. She was the loving wife of David Blauvelt and devoted mother of Henry Blauvelt, Robert Blauvelt, and Anne Juleff.

Anita was born in Paterson, N.J. on March 3rd, 1930. She attended Ridgewood schools and graduated from Cornell University in 1951 with a degree in English and Music. Anita had a lifelong love of music, having started piano lessons at 8 years old and continuing to play piano and the organ her whole life. She also sang in the choir at her church and enjoyed attending operas and the ballet in New York.

Anita obtained her teaching certificate and began a very fulfilling career as a teacher in the Hackensack school system. She became one of the first English as a Second Language teachers. Anita started a tutoring program in Hackensack upon retiring as a teacher, which helped countless students who had been struggling in school.

Anita was very active in the Old Paramus Reformed Church, serving as a Deacon, Elder, and President of the women's guild. She is survived by her husband David, her son Henry and his wife Carol, her son Robert and his wife Jane, her daughter Anne and her husband Gery, six grandchildren: David Blauvelt, Christine Blauvelt, Sarah Blauvelt, Daniel Blauvelt, Joseph Juleff, and Isabella Juleff. She also leaves her sister Jacqueline Kort, her brother Richard van Hassel, and many nieces and nephews.

A Memorial Service will be held on Tuesday, June 5th at 11:30 at the Old Paramus Reformed Church (660 East Glen Ave, Ridgewood NJ).

Service are under the direction and supervision of Hopewell Memorial Home and Cromwell Funeral Home of Hopewell Valley.
