“ I just now learned of Mike's death. Wow, I'm still in shock about it. We worked together for a short while at WJNO and even after I left we'd still talk on the phone every so often. But not often enough. He knew my wife and I loved birds and that we had, at the time, about 15 of them living with us. All sizes. And so he would ask advice on how to take care of them. Next thing I knew, he adopted a little cockatoo and I think it was Weeble! At the time I told him the bird will outlive us all. Along with Mike's husband, I'm sure Weeble is as sad about this as the rest of us are.

RIP, Mike!
